

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Papers as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, 1913 - 1920

Accession Nos. 42-150, 43-90, 43-169, 43-170, 47-15, 48-21

The Papers as Assistant Secretary of the Navy were donated to the Library by Franklin D. Roosevelt and by his estate. The literary property rights in them have been donated to the United States Government.

Quantity: 36 linear feet (approximately 72,000 pages)

Restrictions: None

Related Materials: Material relating to Franklin D. Roosevelt as Assistant Secretary of the Navy will be found in the Fred Colvin Papers (entire collection); the Louis Howe Papers - Navy Papers, 1913-1921; Franklin D. Roosevelt Family, Business and Personal Papers, Naval Affairs - Newport Investigation, 1921, the Rathom Case - Correspondence 1920-1921, the Rathom Case - Exhibits, etc. 1920-1921, and Naval Matters 1920-1922. Copies of materials found in the National Archives Record Group 80 (Offices of the Secretary of the Navy) are filed under "Copies of Materials from Other Repositories." To see this material consult the archivist on duty.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was Assistant Secretary of the Navy during the administrations of Woodrow Wilson, 1913-1921. His papers include material relating to the administration of the United States Navy, Federal patronage and Democratic party affairs in New York State, Roosevelt's campaign for United States Senator from New York in 1914, the campaign to re-elect Woodrow Wilson in 1916, and the movement to nominate Roosevelt as the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York in 1918.

The papers are arranged in two series as follows:

- I. Official File: (Boxes 1-30) Incoming and outgoing correspondence and reports divided into three sub-series: (1) (Boxes 1-9) Files on naval yards and shore stations, fleet operations and individual ships arranged by division, office or bureau within the Navy Department. (2) (Boxes 9-10) Interdepartmental correspondence arranged by Cabinet department (Agriculture - War). (3) (Boxes 10-30) General correspondence arranged alphabetically by subject and surname of correspondent, which includes a file "Volunteers, 1917 - 1920 A - Z" consisting of correspondence with individuals volunteering for naval service or those seeking a transfer.

- II. Personal Files: (Boxes 30-88) Incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, diaries, journals and printed material divided into six sub-series: (1) (Boxes 30-41) Material arranged in alphabetical order by subject. (2) (Boxes 41-62) General correspondence arranged alphabetically by subject and surname of correspondent. (3) (Boxes 62-64) Correspondence relating to Roosevelt's campaign for U. S. Senator (1914) and his 1918 campaign for New York State Governor arranged alphabetically. (4) (Boxes 64-75) Patronage correspondence relating to New York State appointments arranged alphabetically by county. (5) (Boxes 75-80) Correspondence concerning federal patronage arranged alphabetically by surname of correspondents. (6) (Boxes 81-88) Bound scrapbooks of newspaper clippings.
