CONSTITUTION DAY DISPLAY

September 12 - 20, 2009

Henry A. Wallace Center at the FDR Presidential Library and Home

In partnership with the National Constitution Center's annual I Signed the Constitution program, the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum is celebrating CONSTITUTION DAY (September 17, 2009) with a special display in the Henry A. Wallace Center at the FDR Presidential Library and Home, from September 12 - 20, 2009. A copy of the U.S. Constitution and a signing book will be displayed, inviting the visiting public to acknowledge their dedication to the ideals of our governing document, which has formed the basis of the oldest constitutional government in the world. Visitors can also take the "Constitution Quiz" and test their knowledge of the U.S. Constitution. The Wallace Center is open daily from 9:00 a.m. until 6:30 p.m.

The Constitution Center's I Signed the Constitution program has taken place annually for the last eighteen years in cooperation with the National Archives and Records Administration and other agencies. It includes events across the country designed to encourage Americans to affirm their rights and responsibilities as citizens and to learn more about their Constitution.

Please contact Cliff Laube at (845) 486-7745 or email clifford.laube@nara.gov with any questions about the I Signed the Constitution program.

The Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum is dedicated to preserving historical material and providing innovative educational programs, community events, and public outreach.

It is one of thirteen presidential libraries administered by the National Archives and Records Administration. For information about the FDR Presidential Library call (800) 337-8474 or visit www.fdrlibrary.marist.edu.
