- USO SHOW

On Friday, May 25, at 7:00 p.m. in the Wallace Center, the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum will present its fourth annual USO show.

Patterned after the WWII-era shows put on to entertain American troops serving around the globe, this year's show will feature two hours of live Big Band music from the 1930s and 40s, comedy and juggling, historic newsreels and much more.

There is a $5 per person suggested donation for this evening of family entertainment that has become the kick-off event for the FDR Presidential Library and Home's annual Memorial Day Weekend of activities.

- WORLD WAR II BIVOUAC

The lawn in front of the FDR Presidential Library and Museum will take on the appearance of a WWII encampment on Saturday, May 26 and Sunday, May 27, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Period military vehicles—including a Sherman tank—and soldiers in battle dress will be on hand to share their love of history with World War II enthusiasts, families, teachers, and students. This year, the official mascots of the United States Military Academy at West Point, the Army Mules, will be part of the encampment. Civilians are encouraged to look around and interact with the troops; guests are invited to ask questions, touch artifacts, and explore the military vehicles. Military uniforms, weapons, insignia, and vehicles from 1917 to the present day will be on display; throughout the day re-enactors will hold demonstrations of military equipment and explain what it was like for military personnel in World War II. This event is free of charge.
