The Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum will commemorate the 10th anniversary of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks with a public display of a section of steel removed from the World Trade Center

Henry A. Wallace Center at the FDR Presidential Library and Home
September 8 through September 18, 2011

HYDE PARK, NY – During the month of September 2011 the world will mark the 10th anniversary of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks against America that took place in New York City, Pennsylvania, and Washington D.C. The Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum will commemorate this solemn anniversary with a public display of a section of steel I-beam from the World Trade Center in New York City. On display for the first time, the two-foot I-beam section was removed from “Ground Zero” and donated to the Roosevelt Library by the City of New York in 2003.

Visitors can see the item in the Henry A. Wallace Visitor Center at the FDR Presidential Library and Home from Thursday, September 8 through Sunday, September 18, 2011, during regular operating hours and free of charge. Please contact Cliff Laube at (845) 486-7745 or email clifford.laube@nara.gov with questions about the 9/11 display.

The Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum is dedicated to preserving historical material and providing innovative educational programs, community events, and public outreach. It is one of thirteen presidential libraries administered by the National Archives and Records Administration. For information about the FDR Presidential Library call (800) 337-8474 or visit www.fdrlibrary.marist.edu.
