HYDE PARK, NY -- On Monday, December 16, 2013 the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum will close the photography exhibition, "THE ROOSEVELTS: PUBLIC FIGURES, PRIVATE LIVES." A new special exhibition of poster art entitled, "SEE AMERICA . . . THEN AND NOW" is scheduled to open to the public on Saturday, January 11, 2014. Visitors to the museum can view "THE ROOSEVELTS: PUBLIC FIGURES, PRIVATE LIVES" during regular hours of operation, through 5:00 p.m. on December 16. Visit www.fdrlibrary.marist.edu for additional information.

Special Exhibition: "SEE AMERICA . . . THEN AND NOW"

Opens January 11, 2014

This new special exhibition at the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum will showcase the innovative "See America" poster art of FDR's New Deal and exhibit new artistic interpretations of the "See America" campaign. In 2013, the Creative Action Network -- an international online community of artists -- invited artists and designers around the nation to reinterpret the "See America" message for a new audience of twenty-first century Americans. Fifty of the finest submissions they received will be on display. The exhibition is scheduled to run from January 11 through June 30, 2014.

Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum

As generations of Americans that have no personal memory of the Roosevelt Era emerge, it is more critical than ever that the lives and legacies of Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt be preserved and presented to new generations. The Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum stands ready to serve as a visible and valuable resource for children and families, educators and students, and an international audience seeking to understand the past to make a better tomorrow. With a newly renovated building and new permanent museum exhibits, the Library seeks to honor President Roosevelt's vision in dedicating his Library to the American people. The Roosevelt Library is one of thirteen presidential libraries administered by the National Archives and Records Administration. For more information about the Library or its programs call (800) 337-8474 or visit www.fdrlibrary.marist.edu.
