Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum
CONSTITUTION DAY DISPLAY
September 15 - 23, 2012
Henry A. Wallace Center at the FDR Presidential Library and Home

In partnership with the National Constitution Center's annual I Signed the Constitution program, the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum is celebrating CONSTITUTION DAY (September 17, 2012) with a special display in the Henry A. Wallace Center at the FDR Presidential Library and Home, from September 15 - 23, 2012. A copy of the U.S. Constitution and a signing book will be displayed, inviting the visiting public to acknowledge their dedication to the ideals of our governing document, which has formed the basis of the oldest constitutional government in the world. Visitors can also take the "Constitution Quiz" and test their knowledge of the U.S. Constitution. The Wallace Center is open daily from 9:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

The National Constitution Center's Constitution Day programs were developed in partnership with the Annenberg Foundation, the National Archives and Records Administration and other government agencies. They include events across the country designed to encourage Americans to affirm their rights and responsibilities as citizens and to learn more about our Constitution.

In addition to the display in the Wallace Center, related classroom materials are available for educators through the Roosevelt Library's education department. For information on how to obtain classroom materials or to ask a question about the I Signed the Constitution display please contact Jeffrey Urbin, Education Specialist, at (845) 486-7761 or jeffrey.urbin@nara.gov.

The Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum is dedicated to preserving historical material and providing innovative educational programs, community events, and public outreach. It is one of thirteen presidential libraries administered by the National Archives and Records Administration.
